The screenshot shows the Bristol Myers Squibb Corporate Giving page. At the top, the BMS logo and navigation menu are visible. The main heading is "Corporate Giving". Below this, there is a breadcrumb trail: "About Us / Responsibility / Corporate Giving". A large image shows a group of cyclists. Below the image, a paragraph of text reads: "Corporate giving is one of three major ways Bristol Myers Squibb supports worthwhile causes and conscientious citizenship. We also work to reduce health disparities worldwide through the Bristol Myers Squibb Foundation, and we support initiatives through community giving in locations where our U.S. employees live and work." Below this, a smaller paragraph states: "As we work to bring life-saving medicines to patients with serious diseases, we are also committed to improving healthcare, advancing scientific understanding and making the difference in the lives of patients and their families." At the bottom, there are three columns of content: "How To Apply" with a description and links to "How to Apply" and "Letter of Request"; "Giving Guidelines" with a description and a link to "Download Guidelines"; and "Giving FAQs" with a description and a link to "View All FAQs".

Celgene is now part of Bristol-Myers Squibb creating a leading biopharma company positioned to help address the needs of patients with serious diseases. Funding requests may continue to be submitted via the current BMS processes until further notice.

During this transition period, we will jointly review all requests as a team to avoid duplication of funding.

In addition, we are currently updating our FAQs, which will be updated on or about December 15, 2019. Any questions can be submitted to grantsandgiving@bms.com.

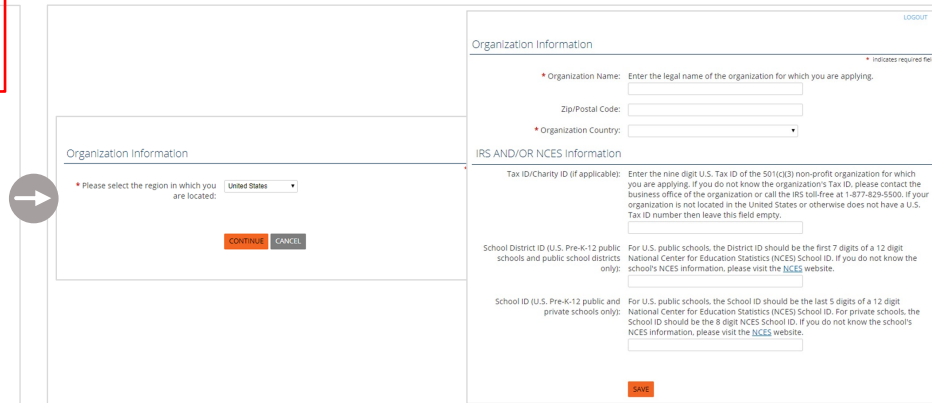

The Online Letter of Request consists of the following sections, each of which must be completed for your proposal to be considered.

1. Contact information
2. Organization Information
3. Letter of Request
4. Attachments
5. Certification

Once completed, all Letters of Request created are immediately submitted to Bristol-Myers Squibb.

Each page will have a timeline like the one below to help you monitor your progress. The line and text will indicate your current position within the application process. If you have technical questions regarding this application, use the link located at the bottom of every page to contact our support team.
