

Are you or a loved one dealing with lung cancer?

A diagnosis of lung cancer can be overwhelming for you and those closest to you. But, know that you are not alone. There are people and organizations that can help.

You may have questions about:

Treatment Options

Understanding the Diagnosis

Managing Side Effects

Caring for Family

Handling Job Responsibilities

Managing the Cost of Care

Coping With Symptoms

Continuing Daily Activities

BE AN ADVOCATE

Patient advocacy organizations can help you with:

- ✓ Educational Materials
- ✓ Free Professional Counseling Services
- ✓ Understanding Insurance Benefits
- ✓ Financial & Transportation Assistance
- ✓ Finding Clinical Trials Near You
- ✓ Connecting With Other Patients

Resources available for patients & caregivers

ASK QUESTIONS

What are some resources available to me?

Let advocacy organizations help. See details on back.

Bristol-Myers Squibb

Bonnie J. Addario Lung Cancer Foundation (BJALCF)

lungcancerfoundation.org
650-598-2857

- Patient portal
- Second opinion referrals
- Support groups with presentations from experts
- Educational patient handbook

Cancer Support Community (CSC)

cancersupportcommunity.org
888-793-9355

- Frankly speaking about lung cancer booklets & webinars
- Cancer support helpline telephone support
- In-person support groups, education, healthy lifestyle workshops
- Online cancer experience registry

CancerCare

cancercares.org
800-813-4673

- Counseling and support groups
- Community in-person and online education workshops
- Financial assistance

CANCERcare

Free to Breathe

freetobreathe.org
608-833-7905

- Support line (844-835-4325) providing education and connections to resources
- Free educational materials
- Online support community
- Opportunities to join a nationwide community of hope

free to breathe
a partnership for lung cancer survival

Lung Cancer Alliance

lungcanceralliance.org
800-298-2436

- Personalized clinical trial and treatment navigation
- Professionally staffed lung cancer helpline
- Mobile app with chat rooms, side effect management and appointment trackers, and listing of treatment centers and events

LUNG CANCER ALLIANCE

LUNgevity

lungevity.org
312-407-6100

- Lung cancer navigation and education
- Online lung cancer communities
- Peer-to-peer matching for patients and caregivers
- Survivorship HOPE summit conferences

