

Transforming Patients' Lives Through Science

Bristol Myers Squibb (BMS) is a global biopharmaceutical company dedicated to researching, developing and delivering innovative medicines that help patients overcome serious disease. In Canada, our team is passionate and precise, working to bring life-saving medicines to Canadians across the country. We transform patients' lives through lifesaving, innovative medicines in oncology, hematology, immunology, and cardiovascular disease.

BMS in Canada

Established in 1925

Head office in Montreal

300+ employees

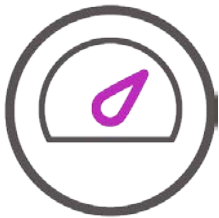

Top 10 biopharma

Working with 30+ patient advocacy associations

Our Innovation Engine

With one of the most diverse and promising global pipelines in the industry, BMS is accelerating breakthrough science for patients with serious unmet needs.

Canada

Close to $40M invested in research and development¹

1st Immuno-oncology medicine in Canada and leader in personalized medicine

Globally

50+ compounds in development across 40 disease areas²

2nd highest number of clinical trials among leading pharma companies*¹

142 clinical studies undergone in 2021¹

$11.3B industry-leading annual research and development investment

Our culture

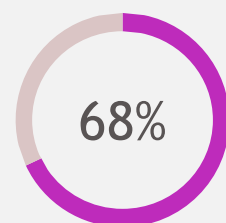

Diverse and inclusive workforce representing Canadian values

Committed to gender representation and advancing the careers of women:

Recognized with Women in Governance gender parity certification

68% women in senior management positions

With great pride, we celebrate each time our patients take back their lives. Learn more at bms.com/ca.